The Honorable Bobby R. Inman
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Admiral Inman:

During open hearings on the Intelligence Reform Act of 1981 (S.1273) in July of this year, you indicated that you would be happy to provide specific details to the Committee in closed session regarding the negative effects of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) on U.S. foreign intelligence operations. Specifically, you indicated to Senator Chafee that you could show where the FOIA had had a negative effect on the willingness of foreign sources or foreign government intelligence services to deal with us.

I would like to invite you to provide this testimony at 10:00 a.m. on Monday morning, November 9, 1981, in S-407 of the Capitol. It is expected that the hearing will take no longer than one hour, although we have secured the room for 90 minutes.

We hope that this time will be convenient for you, and look forward to hearing your testimony.

Sincerely,

Barry Goldwater
